OUR REFERENCES

Ethic rules governing lawyers' practice prevent lawyers from specifying the name of their clients even when being authorized by said clients.

However, Galien Affaires is likely to inform you that its clientele is composed of entities practicing in the following areas:

- Research in life sciences and health industries (biotech companies, medical devices industry, academic research institutions, foundations...)
- Healthcare institutions (cancer centers, groups of private hospitals, groups promoting cooperation in health matters,...)
- Information technology (software editors, IT services companies)
- Insurance business
- Esthetics (trade unions in the esthetic field, franchisor in esthetic retail chains...)
- Agribusiness

THE PARTNERS

THE PARTNERS

The two founding partners are both high skilled lawyers and basic protagonists. Thus, they have a solid knowledge of the clients' interests and issues. They have constantly dedicated expert supports.

Pierre Masson, after a first practice as a lawyer in business law, became deputy legal director and CEO's chief of staff at Institut Pasteur. He has a twofold expertise as an independent professional and an in-house counsel.

David Simhon is officially specialized in healthcare law. He has a master of law in medical and healthcare law, a specialized MBA in healthcare law, a degree in pharmaceutical crimes. Since 2012, he has been chairing the Ethical Review Committee "Comité de Protection des Personnes Ile-de-France III".
